The "Data Controller"

Following consultation of this site, data relating to identified or identifiable persons may be processed.

The "data controller" is:

Kirkmayer Industries OÜ
Address: Pardiloigu tn 5 – 11712 Tallinn – Estonia
Phone: +372 56052579
Email: info@kirkmayer.com

Data Controller

The company InnovaRe has been designated as data processor pursuant to Article 29 of the Code regarding the protection of personal data, as it is in charge of the maintenance of the technological part of the site.

Place of Data Processing

The processing related to the web services of this site takes place at the aforementioned headquarters of Kirkmayer Industries OÜ and is only handled by technical staff in charge of processing. If necessary, the data related to certain services may be processed by the staff of the company that takes care of the maintenance of the technological part of the site, InnovaRe (data processor pursuant to Article 29 of the Code regarding the protection of personal data), at the company's headquarters.

Types of Data Processed

Personal Data

The Data Controller will process data of a personal nature, "Personal Data" means all information through which the data subject can be personally identified, and includes, by way of example but not limited to, the name, surname, date of birth, address, gender, e-mail contact, landline telephone, "mobile" device number, valid identification document.

Browsing Data

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this website acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This information is not collected to be associated with identified data subjects, but by its very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified.

This category of data includes the IP addresses or domain names of the computers used by users who connect to the site, the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the resources requested, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters related to the user's operating system and IT environment.

These data are used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning and are deleted immediately after processing. The data could be used to ascertain responsibility in the event of hypothetical computer crimes against the site: except for this eventuality, at present the data on web contacts do not persist for more than seven days.

Data Provided Voluntarily By The User

The optional, explicit and voluntary sending of e-mails to the addresses indicated on this site involves the subsequent acquisition of the sender's address, necessary to respond to requests, as well as any other personal data included in the message.

Data Provided By Minors

No personal data should be entered on the site by minors without the prior consent of their parents or guardians. We encourage all parents and guardians to instruct their children on the safe and responsible use of their personal information on the Internet. However, we undertake not to store or knowingly use any personal data collected from minors for any purpose, including disclosure to third parties.

Cookies

The policy regarding the use of cookies on this site can be found here: Cookies

Specific summary information will be progressively reported or displayed on the pages of the site prepared for particular services on request.

Purpose of the Processing

The personal data provided will be processed by the undersigned in compliance with the provisions of the Code for administrative purposes related to contractual requirements and for the consequent fulfilment of legal and contractual obligations deriving from them, as well as the achievement of effective management of commercial relations. The processing of data is therefore necessary for the fulfilment of the obligations assumed towards its users, for the fulfilment of the obligations provided for by law, by a regulation or by EU legislation and for the exercise of one's rights in court.

These purposes include:

1. The acquisition and management of your requests for products and/or services and related administrative and tax obligations
2. Until your objection, the sending of commercial/promotional/informative communications via post, telephone, sms, fax, e-mail, also through any subscription to mailing lists and newsletters

Optional Nature of the Provision of Data

The provision of data for the purpose 1) indicated above is optional but necessary. Any refusal to provide data will make it impossible to provide the services and/or products requested. The data controller also informs that any non-communication, or incorrect communication, of one of the mandatory information, has the following consequences: the impossibility of the data controller to guarantee the adequacy of the processing itself; the possible non-correspondence of the results of the processing itself with any obligations imposed by the fiscal, administrative and civil legislation to which it is addressed.

The provision of data for the purpose 2) indicated above is optional. If you do not provide it, the Data Controller will not be able to provide you with the service of sending commercial/promotional/informative communications via email, including by subscribing to the mailing list; however, it is understood that failure to provide data for purpose 2) will not have any negative consequence regarding the possibility of using the services indicated in purpose 1).

Scope of Communication and Dissemination

The data will not be released. Specific consent will be required for dissemination. The data may be communicated to third parties for the above purposes: subjects who carry out assistance activities (e.g. call centre, help desk, etc.); firms or companies in the context of assistance and consultancy relationships, including for the control of corporate organizational management (accounting, administrative, legal, tax and financial matters); companies contractually linked to the undersigned; public bodies and administrations for checks and controls in compliance with tax and civil obligations; banks and credit and insurance institutions for the performance of economic and insurance activities; competent authorities for the fulfilment of legal obligations and/or provisions of public bodies, upon request. The subjects belonging to the aforementioned categories perform the function of Data Processor, or operate in total autonomy as separate Data Controllers.

Processing and Storage Methods

The processing will be carried out in automated and manual electronic form, with methods and tools aimed at ensuring maximum security and confidentiality, by subjects specifically appointed for this purpose in compliance with the provisions of art. 31 et seq. Legislative Decree 196/03. They will be stored at the Data Controller's offices or at the offices of third parties identified from time to time to follow up on the services to be provided for the time strictly necessary for the purposes mentioned above and, in any case, not exceeding the period of time prescribed by law. In accordance with current legislation, specific security measures are observed to prevent the loss of data, illicit or incorrect use and unauthorized access. Personal data will be stored for a period not exceeding the purposes for which the data were collected and subsequently processed, except for transformation into anonymous form.

Rights of the Data Subjects

The subjects to whom the personal data refer have the right at any time to obtain confirmation of the existence or otherwise of the same data and to know its content and origin, verify its accuracy or request its integration, updating, or correction (art. 7 of the Code regarding the protection of personal data).

Pursuant to the same article, you have the right to request the cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data processed in violation of the law, as well as to oppose in any case, for legitimate reasons, their processing.

For any request for information and/or clarifications, questions or complaints on the processing of personal data and to assert your rights as expressed by Articles 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Legislative Decree no. 196 of 30 June 2003, requests should be addressed to the Data Controller:

- by e-mail, to the address: info@kirkmayer.com
- telephone: +372 56052579
- or by post, to: Kirkmayer Industries OÜ – Pardiloigu tn 5 – 11712 Tallinn – Estonia
